

The Gleneagles Scholarship

In Memory of Alan Gibb

The Gleneagles Hotel supported by HIT Scotland and The Federation of Chefs Scotland

In memory of Alan Gibb, executive Head Chef, at The Gleneagles Hotel who, during his career, was passionate about professional development and providing opportunities and mentoring to young people embarking on a culinary career.

Winner of 'The Gleneagles Culinary Scholarship' will receive: Two week stage at The Gleneagles Hotel

HIT Pastry Masterclass

On satisfactory completion of their stage and course they will be offered either a full time appointment at the Gleneagles hotel or given assistance in securing employment within the industry.

To apply for this scholarship you must be enrolled on a Culinary Arts course and be eligible to work in the UK.
