

Board of Management Nomination

In accordance with the Constitution we are required to let you know of any retirements at each AGM. There are no Board members retiring at the 24th Annual General Meeting.

However vacancies for membership of the Board of Management exist and all members of Scottish Chefs (formerly the Federation of Chefs Scotland) are eligible to stand for election should they so wish on submission of a completed nomination. Where the number of nominations from within the membership exceeds the available vacancies a vote will be held of those present at the AGM. All nominations must be supported by 2 other current Scottish Chefs members.
